Subject: Request for withdrawal of my application bearing no. _____ for allotment of a residential flat in the Project Happy Homes Grand, Sector – 85, Faridabad, Haryana

Reference: Successful allotment of flat bearing no. _____.

Sir

I / We had submitted an application for allotment of a residential flat in the affordable group housing being developed by you in Sector – 85, Faridabad, Haryana and for which you had conducted a draw for allotment on March 17, 2017 at HUDA Exhibition Cum Convention Centre, Sector-12, Faridabad in the presence of senior government officials and in the presence of applicants and the general public. In the said draw my / our application was declared successful for allotment of the aforementioned residential flat.

I / We are not interested in continuing my / our application and hence we request you to allow us to withdraw our application and refund us the booking amount without any interest in accordance with the terms of the Affordable Group Housing Policy 2013 of Town and Country Planning Department, Haryana.

I / We undertake to not to claim any right or interest against the above allotment and under the said application and upon refund of the entire booking amount, my / our application be treated as cancelled and withdrawn for all intents and purposes. I / We agree that the refund of the booking amount without any interest shall be accepted by me / us in full and final settlement of all my / our claims under the said application without any demur or protest.

I / We undertake that my present request is irrevocable.

Thanks and Regards
